Michael Hanley
Senior Partner

'Our skilled team of lawyers have extensive experience in the whole range of immigration, asylum and nationality work.'

We are one of the largest immigration law departments in the UK with a team of over 30 specialising in this field.

All our team are accredited with the Law Society Immigration and Asylum Accreditation Scheme and our team is recommended as one of the best for immigration law in the Legal 500 and Chambers Guide to the Legal Profession.

We act for clients from a wide range of backgrounds and from all over the world. We advise and assist in applications for visas to the UK and for extensions of stay once here.

We ensure that, with the right advice and thorough preparation, most applications are successfully resolved on initial submission.

We also advise and represent when things go wrong. We have more than 25 years experience in specialist immigration litigation at all levels of the British judicial system, including appeals before the Immigration Tribunal through to appeals before the Supreme Court.

Over the years we have won numerous cases and used the law to secure justice for many individuals.

We have been awarded a contract by the Legal Aid Agency to provide free legal advice to those on low incomes for some limited areas of immigration law.

We will guide you

The UK immigration system is complex and subject to constant change.

We are here to guide you through the maze and do our very best to ensure that your case succeeds.

Sometimes a case is relatively straightforward but help is needed to make sure it is dealt with correctly, and we are here to provide that help.

Other cases are much more complicated and you will need sound advice and the benefit of wise judgement calls.

What you can expect

- At the first consultation we will ensure that we fully understand your circumstances and the legal issue you need help with.
- We will then assess your options and advise you on the best strategy to achieve your aims with a realistic estimate of costs at competitive rates. If you are on a low income and your type of case is covered by the legal aid scheme we will assess your eligibility.
- We will listen carefully to what you have to say and look at any documents with an expert eye.
- Our advice will be clear and confirmed in writing.
- We will be accessible throughout your case and it will be the responsibility of a single lawyer.
- Your case will receive careful attention and preparation at all times.
- We will use all our expertise to secure you the best result possible.

Our areas

With a large team of lawyers we have individuals who specialise in particular areas of immigration law. We can ensure that your case is placed with the lawyer best equipped to deal with it.

We have expertise in all of the following:

- Visiting the UK – for business or pleasure
- Marriage and civil partnership – with British citizens or others
- Children – joining parents
- Parents – needing to join children here
- Students – short term or long term
- Investors and entrepreneurs – and all business applications
- Skilled workers – advising both employee and employer
- Long residence in the UK – and all other applications for permanent stay
- Refugees - and those needing humanitarian protection
- Human rights – including medical cases and the right to private and family life
- Deportation and removal – including emergency injunctions
- Detention – including applications for bail
- European applications - for EEA nationals and their families
- Human trafficking – assisting the victims
- Regularising status – for those who have overstayed or are here illegally
- Nationality – applying to become British
- Appeals and Judicial Review – representing you in court
